ABOUT PGIMER

The Postgraduate Institute of Medical Education and Research (PGIMER) was established in 1962, inspired by Sardar Partap Singh Kairon and supported by Honorable Prime Minister of India, Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru, who inaugurated the Nehru Hospital in 1963. Initially under the Punjab government, it came under the Union Territory of Chandigarh after state reorganization in 1966. In 1967, PGIMER became an autonomous institute under the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India.

ABOUT SoPICON

SoPICON is the annual conference of the Society of Pharmacovigilance, India (SoPI), a non-profit scientific body focused on enhancing medicine safety and rational drug use through education and training. This conference brings together healthcare professionals for scientific discussions, guest lectures, presentations, and training on drug safety issues, Pharmacovigilance, Materiovigilance and other safety programmes.
